KILLED HUSBAND AND HERSELF. James Hatfield Delaney, rated as a millionaire and vice president and treasurer of the American Shipping Company, with offices at 214 Clark street Chicago, and with branch offices at 29 Broadway, New York city, and in St. Louis, was shot and killed while asleep in his room, at 492 LaSalle avenue, Chicago, early yerterday morning by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Delaney, a former ac-

The police are loooking for two women frequently seen in company with Mrs Deianey and three men, whose identity has not been established, in hope that they may give information which will ex-plain a motive for the tragedy.

So far the only motive which the police can ascribe for the double crime is that Deleney and his wife quarreled over some subject not yet known.

A quart whisky bottle, nearly empty, and remnants of a sunch found in the room, the police believe, may also have had something to do with the tragedy. Other stories are told to account for the double tragedy. One is that Mrs. Delaney had been very jealous of her husband. A theory ascribing an entirely different cause has it that Delaney, though supposed to be a multi-million-aire, and the head of a $40,000,000 concern, has actually been financially em barrassed for sometime, and that his wife, knowing of their impending poverty, preferred death for both.

Delaney was about 36 years old and his wife about 28. Before her marriage the latter was Miss Bessie Brown. Her father, who owns thousands of acres of land in the Southwest, is seprated from his wife, and Miss Brown has spent most of her life in Chicago.

After finishing a course at the Chicago

Dramatic School, she married several Dramatic School, she married several years ago, and went on the stage later under the name of Bessie Mortimer, making her debut in "The Silver Shield."

After the murder the woman appears to have sat for hours beside the bed before she could bring herself to the point of suicide. Finally she thrust the muz-zel of the revolver into her mouth and pulled the trigger. Her hand clutched the revolver when the bodies were dis-

President Smith Fined. Joseph F. Smith, president of the

Morinon Church yesterday, afternoon ap-ROSICA Ritchie, in Sait Lake City, Utah, plended guilty to a charge of unlawful cohabitation and a fine of $300 was imposed. The charge under which the Mormon prophet was arres ed and fined was based on the recent birth to President Smith's fifth wife of his forty-third child Early yesterday counsel for President Smith procured a transfer of the case from Judge Armstrong's division of the Criminal Court to Judge Ritchie's division. After the noon recess, when the courtroom was deserted, President Smith went before Judge Ritchie, offered his plea and the fine was imposed. President Smith addressed the court saying that his latest marriage occurred in 1884. All his marriages, he said, were entered into with the sanction of his church, and, as they believe, with the approval of the Lord. According to his faith and the law of the church, the Judge Ritchie imposed the maximum Just the thing you need fine, but omitted the jail sentence of from one day to six months, which be might have imposed under the Utah statue.
